

VALUE STATEMENT

The BJC is founded on the principle that people come first. From this we derive our driving force, our goals, and our priorities. There are several ways in which we demonstrate our commitment to putting people first, including the high quality of services we provide to:

- Our clients, the unemployed members of the Ballymun and Balbriggan Community
- Our community as a whole, as we endeavour to improve and upgrade the skills, knowledge and aspirations of the people of Ballymun and Balbriggan
- Our partners, the employers and funders with whom we work to fight the unacceptable levels and consequences of unemployment in Ballymun and Balbriggan.

The employees of the BJC hold the key to the quality of service we can provide to all of our clients and partners. Through their dedication and commitment, we can continue to provide the professional service that the people of Ballymun and Balbriggan, the employers with whom we deal, and the partners with whom we work, have come to expect from us.

The continued provision of a committed and dedicated service is dependent on the treatment of all employees in a manner, which values and respects them, protect their dignity, and seek to develop and enrich their innate skills and capabilities. These are the values underlying our approach to employment in the BJC.

The BJC's Vision Statement reflects the goals and operating ethos of the organisation
